THE FIRE PATH

Success requires both correct information and correct implementation. FIRE RING provides both. The Fire Path Personal Growth Track is the map to help you create the life of your dreams.

Below, you'll see a brief overview. We take FIRE RING Personal Growth members on this uniquely designed journey. We help educate, equip, and empower them to experience their own personal and professional breakthroughs. The result is deep personal transformation.

MONTHS 1-3

YOUR SECRET NAME

You don't get what you want—you get who you are. And who you are is determined by how you think.

Most of us say we want better health, finances, and relationships. Yet, beneath the surface, we don't think we deserve it. Projecting confidence on the outside, we feel like imposters on the inside.

The truth is, we'll never outperform our self-image.

Author Kary Oberbrunner knows this firsthand. He shares the same steps that helped him overcome a paralyzing speech disorder and an addiction to self-injury. For nearly a decade, people have benefitted from this invigorating message—finding freedom from their shame, self-limiting beliefs, and masks that kept them stuck and small.

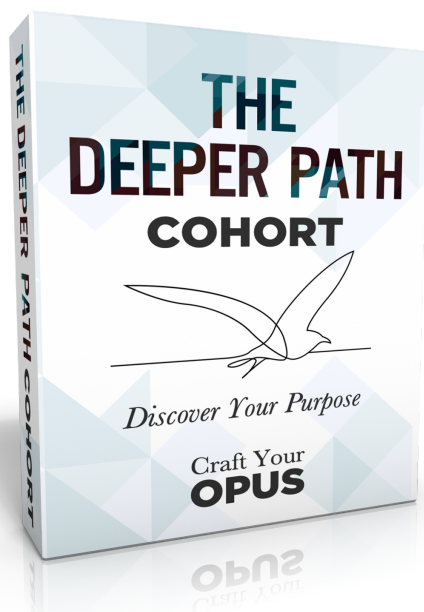

If you're new to Your Secret Name, prepare for an uncommon quest that begins with an ancient story of envy and concludes with a fresh vision of yourself. You'll discover how to

- Reinterpret your past so you can stop hiding behind performance and pain.
- Reconnect with your Creator, core, and community so you can live bigger and bolder without fear and self-judgment.
- Reimagine a new future so you can experience life without limits, borders, or boundaries.

It's time to stop pretending, shed the labels, and discover your true identity today!

MONTHS 4-6

THE DEEPER PATH

Don't live another day without knowing your purpose.

The majority of people invest more time designing a two-week vacation than designing their lives. But without a map, we coast through life feeling lost and directionless. We're already dead—we just haven't made it official.

We may be tempted to downplay this trend, but there is a hefty cost. According to Swiss psychologist Carl Jung, "The most damaging thing in the life of a child is the unlived life of the parent."

It doesn't have to be like this. The people who have found their way are the ones who have found their why. Unfortunately, the world isn't going to hand you your purpose on a silver platter. It's your responsibility to become what L.P. Jacks called "a master in the art of living."

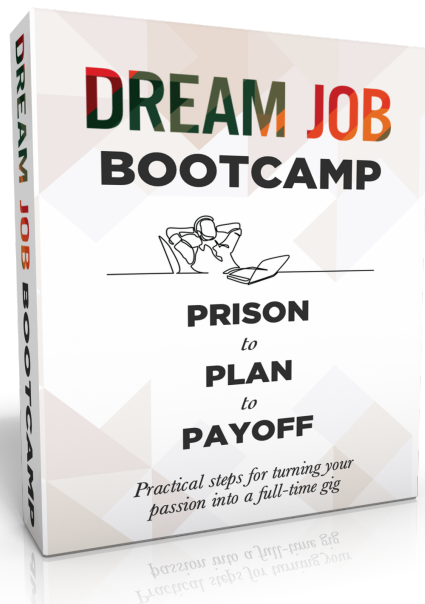

Kary Oberbrunner shares a simple method for finding clarity, mastering life, and doing your purpose every day. If you're new to The Deeper Path, get ready to discover how to

- Say yes to the people and events that matter most and no to those that don't.
- Take control of your calendar and experience margin once again.
- Create a life worth living defined by purpose and passion.

Your clarity awaits inside. If you want to go higher, you must first go deeper!

MONTHS 7-9

DAY JOB TO DREAM JOB

Go as you please, earn as you wish, and live as you like. Start doing your dream job today!

Are you squandering your talents in a job you don't love? Do you feel trapped and dissatisfied, afraid to risk your financial security to pursue your dream? If so, you're not alone. Eighty-six percent of people feel unfulfilled in their current place of employment.

The truth is, you don't need to serve a life sentence in "day job jail." You don't need an MBA, a wealthy investor, or a lucky break to have the job you've always wanted. With the right amount of knowledge, encouragement, and guts, anyone can make the leap.

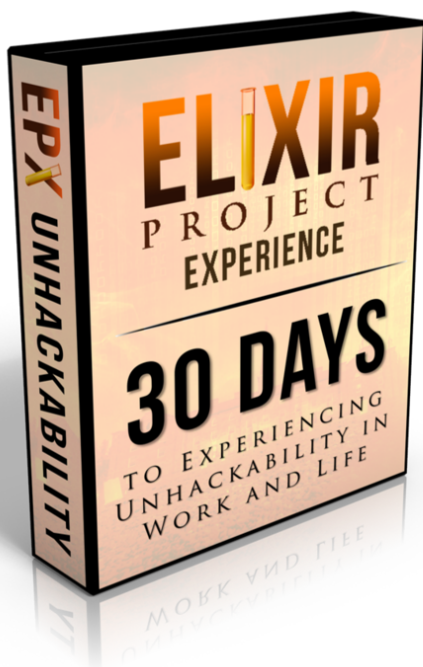

Kary Oberbrunner shares a proven plan for going pro. If you're new to Day Job to Dream Job, get ready to discover how to

- Overcome self-limiting beliefs that sabotage success.
- Build a dream team of experts committed to your cause.
- Carve out a niche and get noticed in a noisy world.
- Achieve personal clarity, competence, and confidence.

Turn your passion into your full-time gig—starting now!

ELIXIR PROJECT EXPERIENCE

Are you getting hacked?

Ever have an amazing idea? If you're like most people, you started out excited, ready to implement your idea. But then something happened. Chances are, you and your dream got sidelined somewhere along the way.

Maybe you just got distracted or lost focus? If you've experienced this, then you're not alone.

Just as phones and computers get hacked, people get hacked too.

And unless you find a solution, you're destined to repeat the same pattern. You'll stay stuck and frustrated. Isn't it time you discovered how to become unhackable?

What if you

- Had the power to create ideas and implement them effectively?
- Were able to architect your attention and invest in the things important to you?
- Knew how to find and utilize the needed resources to accomplish your dream?
- Understood how to exponentially increase your impact on the world?
- Could organize your life around flow: where you feel your best and do your best?
